

Mp3 The Kipnis-kushner Duo, Igor Kipnis & Karen Kushner - Dances For Four Hands

DOWNLOAD HERE

Internationally acclaimed pianists, Igor Kipnis & Karen Kushner, bring these dazzling Romantic dances to life on a magnificent 1895 Steinway. 18 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Traditional, CLASSICAL: Orchestral

Details: "The typically thick, folk-influenced sonorities take advantage of the depth of tone in an 1895 Steinway." Keyboard Magazine, February 2002 "...there is much that is authentic in these wonderfully varied, rhythmically charged, and highly emotive performances. One rarely hears them performed so convincingly; in the case of the Dvorak and Brahms Dances, only Katia and Marielle Labque reach this level..." Fanfare Magazine July/August 2002 The KIPNIS - KUSHNER PIANO DUO was formed in 1995 and made its debut at the New York Musicians' Club, "The Bohemians." Appearances during subsequent seasons have included concerts in California, Connecticut, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, Oregon, Utah, Washington State, and, Washington, D.C. The Duo has been heard in broadcasts over New York's WQXR and WNYC, Boston's WGBH, Pittsburgh's WQED, Los Angeles's KUSC, and seen on cable television in New York. Additionally, the four-hand duo has participated in outreach programs and master classes at schools in over ten states. The October, 1997, issue of Clavier magazine featured the pianists' outreach activities with a cover story. The Kipnis/Kushner Duo was the only North American ensemble invited to perform at the Music in Old Crakow Festival in August, 1997, and in 1998, the Duo toured Brazil, in 2000 Germany.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: