Down South Texas flavor with a totally different appeal 14 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: With his third underground effort, we witness the growth of one of Houston's premier lyricist right before our very eyes. "Confessions of a Porn King--Book 1" not only chronicles events drawn from the harsh reviewed highly disappointing "King of South Park", but also gives the listener a glimpse of what the phrase "going back to the draw board" really means. With much tighter production from SlaughtaHouse co-founder inhouse producer, Dre Bucannon, Vic New gives his fans more than his usual gloats of sexual conquest. Off the strength of Confession's lead single, "Eat", Vic New gives a vivid and candid description on the art of cunnilingus in which is rapidly growing into one of Houston's underground anthems. Dre Bucannon soars as the creative force behind the beats of this discography of Vic New's life. With brutally honest songs like, "Stay Underground" in which Vic New goes into detail about the troubles at SlaughtaHouse, "Why Does It Hurt" "Unleashed" Tha Boss of Tha Houze is not afraid to bare all of the label's dirty laundry. With "Book 2" in the horizon, one can only imagine how more Vic New is willing to share with world. We've already heard his hopes dreams of makin it big in the game so what more can we expect from him. With the absence of "those that use to be with Tha Houze" the burden of being SlaughtaHouse/Block Party's main act falls on the shoulders of this vain yet complicated artist. But like all warriors with their backs against the wall, he will prevail. Currently "EVICTED" members are striking at Vic New and the label by recording vicious verbal attacks on mixtapes all across the southern region. But like all warriors, he will prevail! Overall, "Confessions of a Porn King--Book 1" is an entertaining joy ride of honesty and wittiness from Houston's newest underground sensation... Hopefully, "Book 2" can deliver the same intensity as it's predecessor or maybe more... "Confessions of a Porn King Book 2" droppin in early 2006. Listeners can reach Vic New for
