Details: Adele Morgan Singer/songwriter, producer and recording artist, Adele Morgan, has called Alaska her home since she was six weeks old. She was born in Canada and moved to Alaska with her family to live on the Yukon River in an Athabascan Indian village as missionaries. Her father is a long time Alaskan Missionary bush pilot of whom she sings about in the song Wings of Love. With 4 full length CDs to her credit, From My Heart, a collection of all original songs written by Adele. Its The Time of Year, Imagine Christmas, are both Christmas collections of traditional and original tunes. Her NEW CD, This One Life, was recorded in Nashville with legendary and Grammy award winning duo, producer Billy Smiley and engineer, Billy Whittington. Adele has received both national and state recognition. Her music has received radio play and sold in the US, Europe, Japan, Australia and Africa. Adele started writing jingles for radio in 1992 and in 1999 developed her own music label, Blondetone MUSIC. Her singing led her to Nashville after winning a vocal contest held in her home state. In Nashville, she met some of the best in the music business, which helped hone her abilities and sustained her decision to continue to be a successful Independent Artist. Adeles song Because of Your Grace is featured in the movie and movie sound track of The Imposter, starring, Kevin Max (DC Talk), Kerry Livgren (Kansas) and Jeff Deyo (Sonic Flood). She has performed in the small villages of Alaska and has also shared the stage with several major label artists. As a proud American, it has been an honor for her to sing at Governors Inaugurations, entertain Veterans and perform for political dignitaries from all over the United States. Adele has devoted much of her time and performances to benefit charity organizations, which include the Veterans, Breast Cancer Awareness, The Childrens House, Crisis Pregnancy Centers and the American Diabetes Association. She also continues to volunteer in leading worship at her church in Wasilla, Alaska. Adele has Type 1 Diabetes and wears an insulin pump. She is currently the National Spokesperson for Medtronic Diabetes. Speaking, singing and entertaining people all over the world is Adeles way to educate and encourage others, both spiritually and physically. Adeles passion for music equals her passion for people.
