Bohemian Fifth's music is a unique and marketable form of Hip-Hop. Their musical inspiration comes from Jay-Z, Outkast, the Motown sound, and many others. The groups unique sound is driven by their ability to write, arrange, and produce their own music. Since forming in 2001, they have performed throughout the country, including, Philadelphia, New York, Seattle, Washington DC, and Atlanta. Wherever the group has featured, they have attracted a strong following. Originally there were two groups. One group, Nat Burn, consisted of; Livewire, Obsidian and Lastword. The other group, Ghetto Hero, consisted of; Inglish and Suga Tongue Slim. The groups came in contact with each other while performing at various venues in Philadelphia. Their styles connected and instantly a bond was formed. They combined to make Bohemian Fifth. From diverse backgrounds: Atlanta, Brooklyn, Jamaica and New Jersey, the art brought them together in Philadelphia.
