With his unique style of rhyme, body moving beats, and a combination of hip-hop, funk and R&B, he captivates the ear with a sound that's all his own. Brother M.A.N.I.A.C - a Brother Mainly Addressing Negative Information About the Community is an Army Veteran, born in Washington DC. He articulates social realities through hip-hop music which captivates and motivates people of all ages. On a mission to cause awareness in the community, Brother M.A.N.I.A.C consistently makes good music for the hip-hop generation to party to, vibe to and reflect on. As heard in his original style of rap, Brother M.A.N.I.A.C tells metaphorical stories of life, struggle, dreams, goals, aspiration and the plight of society. In 1998 and 2000 Brother M.A.N.I.A.C. was nominated for a "WAMMIE" Washington Area Music Award. His music created such a buzz from 1998 to 2001, he was awarded Artist of the Year by Hype Magazine. During his Army stint from 2003-2005, in Operation Iraqi Freedom, he received numerous awards; four Army Commendation Medals and five Army Achievement medals for his dedication to the Maryland Army National Guard. Now he's back, stronger then ever dropping his thought provoking 2006 album Conspiracy, which is steadily climbing the charts. His album Conspiracy contains the Top 30 hit single School No More rapattacklives.com/charts_232.htm. Other smooth, R&B/hip-hop singles such as I Wonder, Peace of Mind, Imagine, and Get Ur Groove On, not only make you dance, but more importantly make you think as they touch important issues as drugs, crime, and the need for world peace. Brother M.A.N.I.A.C. is not afraid to express issues that truly effect society, and he does it well. Thought provoking, hip-hop music is not a thing of the past. The Brother Mainly Addressing Negative Information About the Community will not allow it to be.
