Acoustic Bardic folk music by one of the UK's best musical storytellers. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, NEW AGE: Celtic New Age Details: This is Damh's debut CD - the first of three solo CDs, each full of modern folk music. Damh is a Bard whose spirituality is expressed through his music, storytelling and poetry. Drawing on the Bardic traditions his performances are both entertaining and educational, weaving a tapestry of myth, peace, and anthems that speak directly to the heart, but never without a good splash of humour. Damh works within that world of myth that cannot be proved; where the Faerie really do dance on Midsummer's Eve, where the trees talk, and the Hollow Hills take you into the realms of Annwn. Where the Goddess rides her horse, guiding you to magic, and the Horned God of old calls us from the shadows of the Greenwood.
