Electrobek combines the classic American Songwriters tale with the everyday adventure of driving the open road, a timeless meandering journey. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, POP: Folky Pop Details: Electrobek in the creation of singer, songwriter and guitarist John Jakubek(Venice, CA). Drawing from the great depths of the American heartland, his songs tell stories of roads traveled long and far, and of dreams bold and colorful. This imagery is defined in a multi-layered landscape of lyric and sound. Electrobek was born in 2004 while traversing the subtle and sublime streets of Los Angeles. Taking root in Venice, CA along with bassist Mark Getten, drummer Chris Kirshbaum and guitarist Billy Yates, John merged his soulful collection of acoustic songs with the power and inspiration provided by his bandmates: Electrobek. Electrobek's songs have been compared to contemporary American pop artists like John Mayer, The Wallflowers and The Counting Crows, as well as classics like Tom Petty, Neil Young and John Fogerty. All comparisons aside, the sound is fresh and inviting. Perfect company on any road trip.
