My Songs : " Weightless "is on the spirituell Level as well as " Callin U Memory " (which are the same song just different tune) , my Songs were reflecting my Situation when I lost my Big Brother , I looked up at him like a Hero ,he was my everything ,Friend ,Bodyguard , often took on the Parent role when he came to see me and then one day he was not there anymore ,I was only little and left with no one. As from Material there can go.But what is in my mind counts , memory of him ,how he was looked ,I MISS HIM DEARLY ! My lyrics are very strong on this just as when you finish an relationship it hurts ,but memory are there good ones ofcourse. how you calling /yearning for someone ,asking if he/she actually hear you , remember you ,or did read sign (between the line to say STAY or I love you) I better stop boreing you enjoy listening to my Songs yours Ella x
