"Like A Train" is a Christian rock album that differs from most Christian rock albums today. The band gets their inspiration from all styles of music such as Muddy Waters, Tom Petty, The Doors and Stevie Ray Vaughan. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Classic Rock, BLUES: Rockin' Blues Details: En Gedi the band, We are a Christian Rock and Blues band called " En Gedi ". We formed in 2000 with my son Nathan on guitar, lead vocals, and myself on drums. I played my first gig in 1976 at Johnny's 83 on the south side of Chicago, I got bit by the bug hard and been jamming ever since. Nathan started playing the guitar at six years old. By the time he was eleven he got into Robin Trower, Jimmy Page and Jimi Hendrix. Not long after that he bought a Strat, picked up some Stevie Ray CD's and here we are. Our keyboard player Mike joined the group in December 2003. Mike blended right in with En Gedi, he too has a lot of Rock and Blues to his background along with a B.S Degree in Sacred Music. We as a group believe that The Lord has called us to write music proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ, and to do our part in furthering His kingdom. On January 16th Mike's son Aaron joined the group as our bass player, and he gives us the bottom we needed to fill out the sound. It's pretty cool with two dad's and two son's jamming having a blast playing wherever and when ever we can. En Gedi has two CD's out, the first "En Gedi One " came out in 2003. Our latest CD " Like A Train " was released on April 30th 2005. Track one "Checking Out" has climbed to ..3 on GeckoJamz internet radio on Live365 and track three "Jabesh Gilead to .. 10 on the Arizona Reporter and Jabesh will be coming out on XM radio in another month or two. We have songs playing in France and soon in Canada. Our CD is at CD Baby-Amazon.com-
