GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: FRANKLIN and CHARLENA CROUTCH Music, ministry and marriage are three blessings so extremely important to God that they are referenced repeatedly in His Holy Word. It was music, the composition of melody that was able to tame the demons of Saul, to provoke to action the warriors of Joshua and to bring together a team of promise for the world of today through the talents of Franklin and Charlena Croutch. In a family that possesses a multiplicity of musical gifting and talents, the Croutchs have often been compared to the gospel family dynasty, the Winans. Born the eldest of five among a clan of many, Franklin Croutch is taking the lead in bringing to the world a musical anointing birthed from the womb of many generations. Franklin was born and raised in the Charlotte, NC area where he was blessed to spend his youthful years under the influence and tutelage of his musical inspiration, Pastor John P. Kee. He started playing the drums as a preteen with his local church, the family choirs and other local ministries. Farther north on the east coast in Roosevelt, NY, Charlena Hamlin was being prepared for Gods ultimate plan: immersing her with His word priming her for the position of evangelist. Growing up her parents lived by example and exhibited a template of how to live holy for Charlena and her three siblings. The Word of God was being instilled in her both at church and at home. She lived her life as an instrument of holiness and service. Her relocation to Charlotte, N.C. awakened her musical ministry and Gods exaltation of her talents for His glory increased. Though not at the same time, both Franklin and Charlena were involved with John Kees Inner City Mass Choir; but it was through the ministry of Greg Hoover and the Charlotte Community Singers that Gods divine plan began to come together. Franklin served as drummer on the project, Sweet

Holy Spirit, and Charlena made her debut on I'm Encouraged. However it was on the Its Gonna Be Alright recording that Franklin unveiled his vocal talent in a duet with Charlena that not only blended their voices but their hearts. Gods ultimate wisdom interceded as He increased His investment in Franklin and Charlena, their musical abilities adopted the titles composer and arranger. At the same time, Charlenas voice was being heard simultaneously with singing inspirations Patrick Love the Spirit of David and as vocal accompanist for Donnie McClurkins Live in London project. Franklins and Charlenas chemistry has created inspiring music that comforts the hearts of couples and encourages them to persevere and to continuously build on the construction of marriage. Their ministry, though centered in music expands to encompass a youth fellowship (GLOWGifted and Learning the Operation of the Word) with a mission to help youth discover their God-given talents and the purpose it has for their lives. Franklins and Charlenas songs Survivor, Incredible Love, and Destiny, minister to souls seeking answers and healing. Their union has become a blessing to young people and couples in search of divine enlightenment, encouragement, and counsel. They now live by example for their three children in the spirit of holiness. Franklin and Charlena have been inspired and want to share what has been bestowed to them. We want to ignite a hunger and thirst in people that will provoke them, no matter what their circumstance, to fulfill their Destiny: Your Destiny is within your reach." "The soul of the sluggard, desireth and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat." Proverbs 13:4 KJV
