Sting, as well as live performances with Prince, Herbie Hancock and Carlos Santana. Freddie's lifelong commitment to raise human potential through Music gave birth to a powerful interactive performance program in 2002, which he named Tune Up to Success where he reveals to audiences ranging from teens to Fortune 500 Companies how MUSIC connects and empowers their personal and professional lives. Music is so profound that I consider it to be the very fabric of the universe. It is amazing that variations of rhythm, frequency, and harmony can have such a profound universal power to make people jump for joy, feel melancholy, or create a sense of dj vu says Ravel. If Ive contributed music that stirs, surprises and stimulates my audience, then my mission is on track. Cameron Smith, CEO and founder of Americas Smooth Jazz TV recently stated: Over the past ten years, I have come to understand just how amazing Freddie Ravel is both as a musician and humanitarian, his dedication to his craft of making meaningful music is eclipsed only by his desire to champion causes that bring out the best in all of us. Preparing yet another thrill ride for his many fans, the crossover keyboardist is set to launch his fourth album in Spring 2007, a stunning blend of Dance, Romance, Hip Hop, Flamenco and a very special surprise. Stay Tuned!
