An intense, diverse compilation of rock/fusion instrumental and vocal songs featuring Gary King on guitars and Eric Bragg on synthesizers/vocals. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Progressive Rock, ELECTRONIC: Techno Details: Greetings from GARASON CONSPIRACY!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Gary King and Eric Bragg met in Palm Beach, Florida and soon found a common interest in a variety of styles of music. Within weeks they began recording in studios in Palm Beach and Dallas, beginning a project that was to last a year. They created a compilation of music that was not restricted to any given genre, but instead tapped into the diverse musical backgrounds of the artist's multi-decade careers. The result was Glamour Shots, a sixty-minute roller coaster ride of thirteen songs that fuse rock, jazz, classical, reggae, industrial, fusion, and other styles that defy classification. King taps into his wide-ranging bag of guitar tricks to nail multiple solos throughout Glamour Shots, flirting with hints of Hendrix, Holdsworth, Clapton, and Dimeola, to name a few. His free-thinking writing style creates music that is at times impulsive, taking unexpected turns providing no guarantee of ever returning to the starting point. Bragg shows technical expertise with his mastery of the synthesizer, and his passionate vocals help provide a mood that is at times dark and heavy, always convincing, and always one with the music. It is with great pride that Glamour Shots is now commercially available to those listeners willing to let go of their musical inhibitions and take a wild ride. Peace and good vibes to all.
