EASY LISTENING: Lounge, EASY LISTENING: Musicals/Broadway Details: Helene Lundstrom's Biography Helene was born and raised in Malmo, Sweden. Helene moved to NYC in 1998 to study a 2 year musical theatre program, in 2004 she decided to move to South Florida for a change of pace. Helene's career started at a young age, when she was 19 she got the job of a lifetime, She got to play and sing the role of Pocahontas for Walt Disney in the movie Pocahontas with Swedish speech. It was a dream come true for Helene. She continued to work for Walt Disney, she also did Pocahontas II Journey To A New World, some work in Little Mermaid and The Lion King. Helene was at the same time playing for sold out houses for 2 years in the lead role as the Narrator in Andrew Lloyd Webbers "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream coat" and to rave reviews. Helene has been determined to be able to sing as many styles as possible, she started out to be a classically trained singer, then Jazz, then Broadway, Pop, R&B.... Helene also writes her own music and she hopes to spend more time focusing on that in the future.
