His intense vocal capabilities, accompanied by his dramatic, raspy tone sets the stage for his success. On the recent single, "Get It Poppin'" on 12" vinyl, featuring hiphop legend A.G. (D.I.T.C.) and Party Arty, Icewater anchors the track with his explosive vocal fury. Flip to the B-side and hear "Water's Overqualified". This hype bouncy track was produced by Clarity's own, Icewater. The single, "Get It Poppin'", was named Beat Street Record's number 1 selling Independent single for it's first 2 weeks on shelves. The single was distributed by Landspeed and also shipped over seas where things really began to heat up. The vinyl also includes "Best Out Now", also produced by Icewater. B-side provides you with more of his underground approach, sending you a very strong message. Icewater has been known to team up with heavy hitters such as: Buckwild (Production for Black Rob's smash, "Whoa"), Showbiz, A.G., Sadat X, Lord Finesse, and can be heard on A.G.'s "The Dirty Version". He has participated in over 50 showcases and performed with major artists like Amerie and Onyx. 'Water performed in Albany, NY (2000) at the African-American Festival as part of a talent competition with Lil' Zane and other artists. In 2003, Icewater and the Business Crooks hosted and opened for the Ruff Ryders Talent Search. He has also teamed up with several radio personalities, DJs, and appeared on many compilation albums. Icewater's production teams consist of On Top Productions (Boston), Alf Diggy and L4L Records (California), Baby Drawz and InaSirkl (Poughkeepsie, NY), Buckwild (Bronx, NY), and of course, Icewater for Clarity Productions. In 2003, Icewater released "Business First", the LP that made noise for Business Crooks Organized. The title track, "Business First" and the follow up track, "It's Real", were the two that have maintained their position with the college radio stations and Sirius Satellite Radio. Along with "Get It Poppin'", these two tracks can be heard on several artists compilation CDs, such as DJ Concept (Crisis Center, Long Island, NY). For 2004, aside from him presenting the world with his other talents, Icewater is putting together his sophomore album, "The Perfect Plan".
