If you like "Smooth Jazz" you will like the two CD's by Joey Jones Jr. (As I Wait) and (I can't make you love Him). May God Bless the Music Ministry! By Gems and Pearls Music BMI Joey Jones Jr. has proved longevity can be accomplished. Before giving his life to Christ, he has a vast background in the secular music business. Born in Brynmawr Pa, right outside of Philadelphia, he had close connections with the music community. Starting at James Dobson, he studied percussion in the fifth grade and went on to guitar in the ninth grade while attending Murrell Dobbins with music as his major and transferring to Ben Franklin to finish his high school education with music as his major. After doing two years at Combs College of Music, he began his second term of road tours in England, Germany, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Thailand, Singapore, South Korea and Brazil. He had the pleasure to perform with or to share the stage with Little Richard, The Miracles, Mikki, Philly Cream, Pretty Slick, Charley Brown and the Coasters, The Orlonds, Norman Harris (TSOP), Gamble & Huff, Glass Tiger, Information Society, Noel, The Cover Girls, Butch Ingram, Roy Ayers, Fox N.F.L. Pre Game Show, Billy Paul, Eddie Holman, Jamaaladeen Takuma and The Bill Cosby Show. With Jesus Christ as the head of Joey Jones Jr.'s life now the music is better than ever, with two CD's titled (As I Wait and I can't make you love Him), God has surely blessed Joey Jones Jr.'s Music Ministry.
