In 2003, it was featured in The Tennessean newspaper's Holiday Gift Guide. The Littlest Star was left in God's pocket, waiting for his time to shine. Just when he gave up, crying his biggest tears and turning his darket shade of blue, God sent him out on the most important mission in the Universe: to lead the Wisemen to the Christ Child. The littlest Star single, the centerpiece of the CD, was written by Robert Roberg and Chuck Whiting. Roberg, whose artwork has been spotlighted by the Smithsonian Institution, created a dozen illustrations for the album sleeve. A 40-page book, audio cassette and T-shirt are sold separately at shinetimeor littlestar.com. The artists' stirring performances are presented like a musical play, and the jazz instrumental version may be used as a background music track for school, church and community performances. It's also a good item for fundraising. For more information, feel free to call Shine Time Records Books toll-free at (888) 80-SHINE or write us at info@shinetimeor P.O.
