Memorable, inspiring songs, both light hearted and deeply expressive; a refreshing blend of pop and folk, Canadian content and Nashville production. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Ani, POP: Folk Pop Details: Jones is a bold writer with a restorative, liberating, and whimsical voice, reminiscent of the likes of Eva Cassidy, Norah Jones, Sheryl Crow, and Sarah Harmer. She shows herself at home in an acoustic and harmonic geography akin to David Gray, Iron Wine, and Simon Garfunkel, creating work that is arresting in its artistry, but which also possesses a lyrical depth intent on engaging the thoughtful listener. a style of heart felt yearning from a performer that compels your attention. Halifax Herald Miriam recently exchanged Canadas East Coast for its West, returning to the city where she was born, and is quickly establishing herself on the Vancouver music scene. Her song Squander from her debut album Sign Semblance recently aired on the new Canadian hit TV series Falcon Beach. She is currently recording her second album with Nashville producer Charlie Peacock. "Miriam Jones' sophomore album Being Here is a well-written, well-produced effort that found its way onto our playlist moments after arriving in the mail. Jones' strong songwriting lends itself to a seamless blending of country and pop sensibilities on what is in essence, a lovely folk album. Being Here is a fun, sometimes poignant, and entirely enjoyable effort from one of the West Coast's rising young artists." North By Northwest - CBC Radio ONE
