Commercial, Sexy, and Fun. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover
Details: Elation is the collaboration of Scott Walker of SWP Productions and Taya Eliades'Cade, which was established in January 2005. Its rather amusing how the two of them came to be working together. One day, whilst Scott was looking for a recording of sound effects, a CD unexpectedly leapt off a different shelf and struck him on the head. Staggering backwards slightly surprised and concussed, he looked down and saw a CD lying on the floor; He was then drawn closer by the CD cover ... A naked Taya! Well not completely naked, from what is recalled a pair of black gloves was the only article of clothing and being sat strategically concealing all the necessities. This certain CD had been gathering dust on a shelf for 4 years and was only brought to light by a sheer accident. Scott thought that this was a sign and listened to the CD with intent, and thats when he decided to phone Taya and enquire what she was doing musically at that present time. A slightly puzzled and surprised Taya was somewhat astonished at the phone call as it had taken roughly 4 years to prompt an answer from Mr Walker. Taya replied "Well its like this, Im still chasing rainbows!!!!" It was the beginning of something Big; this was the Birth of Elation.....
