Gorgeous vocals immersed in ambient electronic, acoustic soundscapes with poetic lyrics and beautiful melodies 10 MP3 Songs POP: Ambient Pop, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Glimmer Field is The Tellings third release, and their most ambitious effort, blending classical, experimental, progressive and folk song structures. As in the past, every track is a unique, meticulously crafted soundscape. In addition to ambient, electronic programming, the album weaves acoustic guitar with cello, viola, trumpet, flugelhorn, vibes and melodica. The CD opens with the haunting "Flying Solo", an adaptation of Edvard Griegs "Norwegian Rustic March". Scandinavian folklore swirl under sonic ear candy and counter melodies. While some tracks are reminiscent of the ethereal, shimmering atmospherics that grace the Blue Solitaire CD, this album is achingly earthier and even more genuinely heartfelt. Described by critics as haunting, addicting, and divinely cerebral, The Telling grow in their appeal with repeated listening, much like The Blue Nile. Melt your heart vocals, hinting at a mournful Portishead, meet with orchestral arrangement on the classic blues standard, As The Years Go Passing By, sounding perfect for a break-up movie sound track. Cinematic sounds continue on the epic, eight minute The Arrow Cries, which includes a Paiute Indian chant. This is poetic melancholy with sparkles of hope, best appreciated in late night headphone reverie. People who are interested in Kate Bush Frou Frou should consider this download.
