Details: Three At Last is an uncommon and magical blend of original singer/songwriter voices. Their powerful combination of brilliant writing, soaring vocal harmonies, and multi-instrumentalism pushes the boundaries of American folk music into rich new realms. Anita Sandwina (vocals, guitar, mandolin, violin) is an award-winning songwriter whose voice and lyrics survey a wide swath of emotional territory, from social commentary, to modern relationships, to complete silliness. Ginger Parish (vocals, guitar, percussion, harmonica, recorder) brings the desire to unravel life's complexities and the art of story to her thoughtful ballads. She dazzles audiences with her soulful vocals and one-of-a-kind harmonic style. Velvy Appleton (guitar, vocals, bass) creates songs which delve into the deep rivers of time and change, while his guitar weaves melodic threads into the surprising quilt that is Three At Last.
