New folk/girly rock. meaningful lyrics as sung by a love-sick songstress 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Ani, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Toni Sicola is a funky folk rocker with influences ranging from 80's top 40 to Ani DiFranco and Indigo Girls. Blending an acoustic sound with gritty electric guitar, Toni's music stretches her genre, reflecting her Texas roots and her love for the new folk scene. Her voice cuts through the music with an elegant passion that pulls the listener into every song she performs. After finishing up in the studio with Jack Saunders of White Cat Records in the summer of 2005, Sicola released her latest album, Another Thing Coming to Texas audiences before uprooting and moving to Baltimore, MD. This is her third album, and by far her best showing yet, reflecting her evolving songwriting skills and sincere subject matter. Sicolas writing has a clear focus with vivid lyrics and inspiring musicianship. Another Thing Coming includes recut material from her independent album (Released, 2003) and songs inspired by a four-month stay in Florence, Italy. With a unique line-up of instruments and a fabulous band behind her, Toni Sicola proves that she can compete with top musicians for a place in the limelight. She has participated in events such as the Houston Womens Festival and the ROCKRGRL Music Conference 2005, and performed live in Houston and Austin, TX. Her newest adventure, moving to the East Coast, will create an opportunity for networking, greater exposure and, of course, new fans.
