OUR SONGS - Take a little trip to heaven on Wings of Grace! Our album's title song gives joyous, soaring words to Dvorak's famous Largo ("New World"). Praised as an uplifting Memorial Song in remembrance and memorial services, "Wings of Grace" gives solace in a time of loss as well. - "As the Dawn Unfolds," a powerful piece performed stunningly by Diane di Stasio and James Gardner, takes us from devotion's early morning glow to a radiant noonday of the soul! - "I Come Home" is a deep, personal response to an invitation to grace and glory which is open at all times, in all places, to all on earth. This heartfelt Invitational Song enriches both group and individual worship. - "You Walked Humbly" calls out resoundingly to a noble Prince of peace and love revered by many, followed by far too few. The melody is from Albert Ketelbey's In a Persian Market. - "We Gather to Worship You, Lord" is a joyful Call to Worship Song we can join in singing as we enter the sanctuary, preparing our hearts to worship the Lord together. - "Together Forever" celebrates an ever-present helper and friend and the glorious future He promises us. The song was inspired by a Beethoven string quartet. OUR CD, WINGS OF GRACE: SONGS BY KAREN ROBERTSON, is joyous, powerful, personal, deep and resounding! These upbeat contemporary Christian and modern worship songs have a classical feel. The exquisite voice of Diane di Stasio brings the songs to vibrant life. James Gardner's superb instrumental versions of our songs make great listening and can be used as accompaniment tracks for performance and worship services (lead sheets and scores available March 2007).
