When Cora Beth Anderson receives a letter from her cousin who is volunteering with the orphan train children, Cora makes a trip to St. Joseph, Missouri to meet her. She then begins a series of challenges which will change her life forever. One challenge is how to keep the beautiful foster child in her care from becoming a victim of extortion, another is to care for a black child in a community not yet ready to accept her. But her biggest challenge comes after meeting Jonathan Childers, a casualty of the uncivil war between the states, whose experiences have left him bitter and depressed. Can she help him recover his faith in God? Can she keep her heart intact in the process?
