Related styles: EASY LISTENING: Harmony Vocal Group, SPIRITUAL: Inspirational People who are interested in Peter, Paul Mary Sweet Honey in the Rock should consider this download. Details: Magic Blend is an exquisite mingling of harmonies created through potent vocal expressions by Mica White, Jen Worthen, and Lynn Rosser. Chris Rosser's articulate instrumental genius spreads wings and strokes soul strings caressing vocal nuances. River Guerguerian's spirit in the drums creates juicy undulations that anchors love's ocean rhythms while Mica's storytelling touch weaves into the heartfelt lyrics. Jen Worthen: The high soprano voice you hear that sounds like ethereal angelic wings wafting across your heart strings is the voice of Jen Worthen. Having sung previously with Jen, I knew I wanted her beautiful heartfelt energy and delightful bright vocals on the CD. Jen is a Music Therapist and Counselor. She facilitates healing through guided imagery and music. She can be contacted at jenwo1@junoor musictransforms Lynn Rosser: The delectable swirls of light and dark chocolate mocha with a touch of some exotic middle eastern spice vocals are Lynn Rosser. Her fabulous vocal prowess has blessed numerous albums and venues. Having experienced her potent talent as Choir Director and Voice Teacher, I knew she had the knowledge and intuition to create the luscious harmony for the third vocal on the CD. Having her own full range voice and playful dramatic flare enhances her adept technical knowledge as a voice teacher. She can be contacted at lrosser@aol Mica White: The second soprano vocal or melody voice has a solid sound with wellsprings sparkles of storyteller and passionate expresser. She is the author of these songs, and a storyteller at heart. She has been writing songs since her teens, luckily this is a later more enlightened set of songs. Chris Rosser: Mild mannered, good humored super Recording Studio Hero and awesome instrumentalist,

Chris Rosser, was a steady anchored keel in the tumultuous ocean of my creative course. Having lived with this music for months and done all the basics: instrumental melody, rhythm, and vocals, it was time for the silk and lace nuances of Chris's musical genius. When he added fifteen tracks there were five different songs, I cried. He had taken the very soul of the songs to such sublime exquisite heights. Between his adroit recording wizardry, my atypical requests, and a plethora of editing choices Magic Blend was born. He can be contacted at info@chrisrosseror chrisrosser.com. River Gueguerian: This mellow fellow's soul sensually enters the vibration of the drum with such profound depths that one drum exudes a symphony of sound. Notes undulate as articulately as one mastered in the ancient art of traditional belly dancing. His rhythms create juicy essentials, saucy couplings, and titillating joy springs. The New York Times knows he sensationally performs and I know he IS THE BEST GIG AROUND! Which is why I had to ask if this beautifully spiritual man to be on my CD.
