If you like 80's pop (David Bowie, Prince, Duran Duran) you'll love Andrew Benon's retro pop sound. 7 MP3 Songs POP: New Wave, POP: 80's Pop Details: Here's what people are saying about Andrew Benon and his debut record Rock and Roll Moves: From Donewaiting(9/2/2006) I Love the '80s (and so does Andrew Benon) 33-year-old songwriter Andrew Benon attributes his career choice to one particular evening as a youth, sitting in the backseat of his parent's car in a Pizza Hut parking lot. Suffering from stomach problems, little Andrew Benon was in pain until Hall Oates "Kiss On My List" started playing on the car radio. That's when he realized that he wanted to be a rock star. Many years later, Benon, a Minnesota native, has released his debut, a compact 7-song CD titled Rock and Roll Moves. Before pontificating on the actual music, let me just say that for a debut by an artist not known out of his own zip code, 7 songs is the PERFECT length. Bravo on that alone, Mr. Benon. Bravo. The music on the CD is an homage to mid-80s FM pop radio. Benon's vocals sound like Bowie's from the "Let's Dance"/"Blue Jean" period of Ziggy Stardust's career while the music falls somewhere between the new wave Brit-pop synth keyboard sounds of Duran Duran and the booty-shaking funk of the almighty Purple One, Prince. In other words, this is the ideal soundtrack to an afternoon at the roller rink. Oh yeah, did I forget to mention that members of Tapes N' Tapes, Mike Doughty's band, N.E.R.D. and Prince's band lay down the smooth funk sound on the CD? Dig it my brothers and sisters, dig it in all of it's 1985 glory. Comments from MySpace: "This record is slammin and jammin! It's the soundtrack of summer!" - Tanya, MySpace "You're straight up 1985... and I like that." - Jessucka, MySpace "I'm really digging Rock and Roll Moves, I heard it on someone's profile and was like oh my god newwavedavidbowieduranduran attack, I love it...but it's original all the same, keep doing what you're doing." - Charlotte, MySpace "So glad to know that there are still musicians out there who aren't afraid to make some serious pop music." - Van Winkus, MySpace "i like ur song so great i love rock" - JiJi, MySpace "The sax solo on "Rock and Roll Moves" is genius...like paper towels." - Kyle, MySpace For more, visit Andrew at: andrewbenon.com
