Indie Canadian Singer/Songwriter Asha, has elements of pop/rock/Electronica/with emotional melodies. From The Stars to Tegan And Sarah, this music is timeless and easy to listen to. 9 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Glam Details: Canadian Singer/Songwriter Asha, is only 25 years old, and captivating audiences in British Colombia everywhere she goes. Originally from Kamloops, B.C, Asha's newest album "things we don't say" would best be described as an indie pop/rock mixed with electronica background. Try to picture Emm Gryner, the Stars, Metric and the killers downing a couple martinis together. This album takes Asha to new heights in her music, showing a maturity over her last album "livin' Here" which was a more acoustic album.
