Guitar based blues instrumentals, various styles from slow, minor key blues to jazzy, uptempo shuffles. 8 MP3 Songs BLUES: Guitar Blues, BLUES: Electric Blues Details: Note: This CD is no longer in print. It had a good run and sold quite a few copies, but at least for now I have decided to leave it as a digital only distribution. Tracks are available on most of the major digital distribution places, such as iTunes etc. You can also get them in weed format here: weed-files.com/artists.asp?lng=09&flag=0&func=1&id=173 I spent many years playing blues guitar in various bands, gigs in clubs mostly. Finally I got sick of trying to keep a decent band together and decided to do my own thing for a while. I do guitar instrumentals, mostly blues, but also stuff along the lines of something Santana might do. The Blues is the music I love the most and is probably what I play the best. Most people consider me to be a good feel player, someone who puts a lot of emotion in his playing. When I do a blues instrumental I always try and have a main melody line or a hook so that it is a song and not just a jam. I love hearing guys wail on guitar, but at the end of the day I prefer hearing something that has a hook or a main theme. In addition to "Feeling Blue" I also have a latin rock CD out called "Evening in Brazil".
