His solo debut release, "Through It All", is guaranteed to give you a spiritual lift at your lowest point. This 38 year old singer/song writer, was born with the terminal illness Sickle Cell Anemia. He is a walking, talking, living testimony that no matter what you are going through in life, God is able to calm the storm, and if he doesnt calm the storm, he will give you strength to weather it. Greg was diagnosed at the age of 2, and was predicted not to live to see his 3rd birthday. Encouraged by his parents to learn to play piano, Gregory found strength to deal with his pains, heartaches, and disappointments through his faith in God and his music. In 2003, after an eleven-month stay in the hospital from complications caused by a sickle cell crisis, Greg began to document his experiences, both tragedies and triumphs. This documentation was both the inspiration and blue print for the album "Through It All". Let this project and the testimony of his life experiences renew your strength and remind you each time you listen to it that even at your lowest point, "God will never leave you nor forsake you".
