Details: John Herberman's fans write; The music is simple, but wonderfully profound. (T. B., India) The layers of sounds...are woven like a fine ancient tapestry. Just simply wonderful. I am so grateful to be able to know it. (P.&T. T. , USA) Your music...has a strong healing effect...[It] makes me want to start playing again. (J.VderM., Holland) Thank you for the magic moments that your music gives me! (A.B., Italy) These songs give me peace, inner joy and inspiration each time I listen to them...You are very gifted...your music heals and inspires. (E.R. P-M., USA) From Ceola Records comes its first release, a new offering from internationally known and Juno-nominated recording artist John Herberman. This CD contains music composed for his 2006 solo concert in Japan at the renowned Tokyo Opera City concert hall, as well as new material that will be appealing to anyone who has been following the recording career of this accomplished pianist and composer. This is a compelling collection of signature melodies and the very personal playing style that has earned John a loyal following, with some new directions. With this CD, John shows his improvisational skills and explores the use of multiple pianos, all with the strong emotion and attention to musical detail for which he is known. As an added bonus, and in response to numerous requests, sheet music is available for all but one of the songs on the CD. Best known up until now for his work with the Solitudes and Avalon labels, John has also recorded for Westwood Records in Japan. His CDs have earned 6 Gold Records and 1 Platinum Record in his native Canada.
