His music is best described as contemporary pop, containing his own personal touch. Over the past several years, Matt has served youth through his leadership and participation in retreats and rallies. He has performed at numerous youth workshops all over the U.S and Canada. Matt was blessed with an opportunity to serve on REACH Youth Ministry sharing his talents as a music and retreat leader. Matt has played music for a variety of audiences and ages and is often asked to lead Praise and Worship. He has continually served as a Christian artist at the NFCYM NCYC conferences. He is currently working with Catholic Heart Workcamps as a musician for their summer workshops. His music is also apart of the new program on EWTN, "Wave Factor", which aired January 2004. As Music Director for "That Life Rally" he is teaching life values to youth and young adults through his music and personal testimony. Matt enjoys reaching youth, watching God's amazing work transform their hearts through the awesome gift of music. Mission To directly impact lives with the Gospel of Jesus Christ through my music. I hope to put my faith into action through the power of music, always glorifying His kingdom on earth.
