A musical extravaganza: from Country to Pop to Rock and Blues to Fusion, Raggy takes you on a lifetime's musical journey. 15 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Pop, BLUES: Guitar Blues Show all album songs: Maybe Some Day Songs Details: So what's a Bluesman (just hit Track 14, "Nag-ativity Blues" for some no-holds-barred high-octane Blues) doing singing Country too? Music and Life. I've been playing music for more than 40 years now, and this album brings out all the things that have influenced me musically, while I reflect on the meaning of Life and various issues and experiences of significance. Music to me is a means of expressing thoughts and feelings, deep and intimate details can somehow be put into a song, while the listener has the choice of just hearing the "tune" or delving deeper to get to the soul of each song. There are things I'd like to tell. About Life. About Death. Joy. Sorrow. Ambitions, frustrations. Growing up. Growing old. Regrets. Self-discovery. Exasperation at the world and how we handle issues like wars and famine. I thus decided to spend a year of my life to put together various things I needed to say in song and music. That year became 2 years. And the result is this album. I have used a variety of musical styles to bring out my stories. Each song has a meaning and a message, and the listener will probably make his/her own inferences based on his/her own experiences in Life. Which is good, for it is not my intention to make you listen to my life: I would rather you use my songs to reflect on your own life. Peace. May your world be a better place tomorrow than today.
