Harmony singing sisters tackle love, politics and the American Dream. Acoustic guitar, piano and percussion played by the sisters with guest performers on peddle steel, mandolin, violin and viola. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Alternative Folk, FOLK: like Joni Details: We've been singing together since we were small children. We debuted our first song "Living in a Dreamworld" live from our bedroom closet at ages 5, 7 and 10 for which we prepared a full repertoire, intermission snacks, backstage passes and autographs after the show. At first Beatrice was deemed the groups interpretive dancer as Anna and Cas had declared that at 5, her voice had "not yet developed". Clearly, these were matters of utmost seriousness. In the beginning the songs were mused from hours of lulling younger siblings to sleep. Years passed and our passion for writing and performing flourished. Together we discovered William Butler Yeats, Edger Allen Poe, Shakespeare, our fathers rythm and blues record collection and acting. Homeschooling gave us all the time in the world to write and do improv to our hearts content. We made recordings of our first demos. They exist somewhere in the rubble of a garage filled with 8 childrens worth of past junk. Anna got a guitar, pursued a solo career and released her first album (Elixir for the Human Heart) and Bea attended art school, while Cas moved out and continued writing and singing with other local artists. Now we present you this, our debut album, Star Spangled. People who are interested in Ani DiFranco Joni Mitchell Feist should consider this download.
