As a teenager he began honing his skills as a member of a Gospel Quartet and in various local clubs. He has subsequently been a staff singer for Sony Records, has had an original composition on "90210" as well as a music video on BET T.V. Timmy has featured songs on the Soap Operas "All My Children and One Life to Live" also on BET TV the mini series "Soul Food". Timmy has done comedy jingles for the Howard Stern Radio Show. Timmy's vast studio experience has found him in recording studios all over the country. He is currently completing his second CD of original music; due to come out in July of 2004 with the first single entitled "I'm Here For You". Although he loves the studio process, Timmy thrives on live performance and the energy of a live audience. Besides local venues, he has opened for the likes of Freddie Jackson, Phyllis Hyman, Brian McKnight, Jeffrey Osbourne, Blue Magic, Joe, the Whispers, and Marian Meadows, just to name a few. Timmy and (Bock Blu keyboardist) Jay Rowe have been working together on various projects since 1998. Timmy became a full time member of Bock Blu in 2002.
