Close your eyes and relax with this album featuring Native American flute music played from the heart. 19 MP3 Songs WORLD: Native American, WORLD: World Beat Show all album songs: Broken Feathers Songs Details: Russell is of Inca, Cheyenne, and Irish decent. He has traveled throughout America, Peru, Columbia, Equador, Venezuela, and 44 states of North American and Canada. The music he plays comes from the heart. He makes his living as an Artist, Drum maker, Flute maker, and as a Musician. His children, JesseRose and Mateo, perform with him. Russell has seen the poorest of poor, so many families in need. That is why a portion of the proceeds are donated to KIVA, to help indigenous people around the world. From the beginning there was music. Before there were borders, there were Indians. Russell and his family believe in keeping traditions alive. For more information and some pretty interesting stories please visit them @NativeFluteFamily.com. And please enjoy the music!
