When graphic designer Charlene Mitchell waves goodbye to the glitter of LA and moves to a small northern Californian beachside town called Raysville, she is charmed by its close-knit community - until she becomes the subject of gossip for making out with a local firefighter. Soon, it seems that everyone in the town has formed an opinion about her. In the neighbourhood bar, corner store, and even the bakery, there are whispers about Charlene's scandalous sex life. Frustrated by her inability to live down the rumours, Charlene enlists the help of her old college buddy, Mia, who heads to Raysville to create a diversion. In trying to make amends for previous wayward antics, the two flighty friends send male libidos haywire - and the local women are not best pleased!
