In today's ever growing world of E-Commerce, the demand and need for competent (notice I said "competent") affiliates grow by leaps and bounds. You see, Affiliate Marketing has evolved from the early years when some touted it as the future of online advertising, and others claimed it was the downfall of the medium (yeah, right!). It's now a sophisticated channel that generates anywhere from 5 - 25% of online sales for many of the world's biggest brands. Almost all major multi-channel marketers have an Affiliate Program of some kind, coming in all shapes and sizes. The concept of a wide-open affiliate program with an unlimited and uncontrolled number of affiliates is a thing of the past. Nearly all marketers agree that affiliates add value to an online marketing effort, but the program must be tailored to meet the marketer's objectives. In a nutshell, Affiliate Marketing has evolved, with affiliates and marketers becoming more sophisticated and programs more integrated with other forms of online marketing. In spite of how rewarding affiliate programs can be, it... Sounds All Very Rosey, But Are You Faced With These Problems As An Affiliate?
