Contemporary Christian, songs from the heart. 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: David Aucoin, and inspiring vocalist and Songwriter/composer, collaborated with Jenna Vescio Author and songwriter in producing this CD. LohnRiver Arranger assisted with most songs, and also assisted David Aucoin in direction. Bree Noble did a wonderful duet with David Aucoin on "Will You Be Mine" orchestrated by Wayne Miller. Songs in this CD were written due to the different phases of David's life in search for answers to the longings of his heart and soul. They were created through David as messages of hope and encouragement along his spiritual path. David Aucoin also has another CD "Reflections" that will be released in the near future. David Aucoin recently attended the "Coal Miner Jamboree" at Stearns Kentucky USA, with artists like Donna Frost, The Frost Brothers, Claude Davis, Denise Jerrido, Karen Byrd. They were showed on Channel 2 and 5 television. Claude Davis reveiw: Good Lord Willing. Gevania Records LLC. (from USA) brought three of their artists to the show. David Aucoin, from Louisiana, shared some of his original songs with the crowd. Everyone listened as he spoke of surviving hurricane Katrina, and his modest appraisal of how God took care of him and his family. This singer/songwriter is a story-teller, and the stories are of Hope and God's Love for all. It took a lot of courage to take the stage after the McKee's finished, but it proved to be no problem for Dave. We hope to schedule him back with us next season. David Aucoin would like to give special thanks to his friends and family who have supported him through these years. Into thy hands I commit my spirit.
