Finally, after retiring, and my children are grown, my dream of recording some songs I've written over the years about some of the hands life has dealt me, has come true. I'm sure you'll find yourself relating to some of the same experiences and delemas I've found myself in over the past ___ years. You'll hear about my hometown, love found, love lost, and a semi truck that won't give up. Hear what I have to say about our space race. Last but not least, hear how a broken heart almost turned me into a broken man. Thanks.I know you'll enjoy. The next album promises to be even better.
