Details: Whoa whats up fam this ya boy dro from them blackheart boys you know . Im better known as Roger Boudreaux JR a longhard veteran from out them New Orleans streets in the lower ninth ward(9thWard) cross that canal (C.T.C). My mother Bonita A. James and my @#$$$$ never mind him was always supportive with a messege of realness. Being raised in New Orleans was a blessing for me in so many ways. Aside with the music food and culture. I took music and ran with it. I felt I could relieve stress in my music in so many ways. From the beat to the hook to the 3 verses to the burner."na play that" ha ha ya feel me. It took HURRICANE KATRINA to open my eyes that material things. is not forever , and within me honestly I really need to do something with my life. So here you go blackhearts ent. 2005,2006 much love to my FAN'S ,NEW ORLEANS,FAMILY,and special love to the KATRINA VICTIMS "heads up". IM OUT. "DRO"
