Healing Easy Listening 7 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Background Music, CLASSICAL: Piano solo
Details: Jeffrey A. Arnett creates the perfect environment for meditation, study, and quiet repose. Jeffrey understands the need for quality stress-reduction therapy in today's fast-paced society. He currently manages studies at the University of Indianapolis, a full-time career, Pianist and vocalist for his local church, a volunteer for Angel Food Ministries, and being a full-time dad to his daughter. His Peaceful Reflections music touches lives throughout the United States, Caribbean Islands, Africa and Europe in such areas as abuse refuge centers, preschool and kindergarten classrooms, dance studios, cancer treatment facilities, hospitals, political offices, retail stores, libraries, doctor's offices, chocolate cafes, churches, residence, and day spa's. Please visit his website at: jeffreyaarnett.com Take a look at the April 2007 edition of Indianapolis Monthly Magazine and see on page 44 what is said about Jeffrey A. Arnett and his popular album Peaceful Reflections: Double Time-A local musician's first CD is not the soundtrack to his life. Pianist Jeffrey A. Arnett says he recorded his first album, Peaceful Reflections, in hopes of helping others find the same comfort in music that he does. But given all the activities this busy man is involved in, he probably needs time for peaceful reflections more than any of his listeners do. Arnett, a 36-year-old Indy native, plays piano at the Victorious Life of the Nazarene Church, works at Sequoia Consulting Group, is a full-time music major at the University of Indianapolis, gives private music lessons and is a single parent to his 5-year-old daughter. He also just started his own record label and wedges in some volunteer work. Even so, he somehow managed to find time to compose and record this album full of gentle, George Winston-esque songs, and he's completing two more. -Gabrielle Poshandlo
