You can enjoy music with anyone, anywhere. When music speaks a global language, the barriers disappear. It inspires us to create an experience that brings artists closer to their fans and consumers, regardless of language or style." Keith started playing saxophone at age 10, played through high school, and then college. While Keith has always been recognized as a great performing musician, he began his professional music career as a middle school band director, then as an instructor in career education. Recently, he obtained his MM (Masters in Music) at The Ohio State University. Other career highlights include experience as a web developer and as a technical support consultant. As a performing musician Keith is on the brink of making it past the point of "part-timer." He's had lots of impromptu performances nationally with groups like Blessed Union of Souls, Bare Naked Ladies, Kirk Whalum, Jewel, Winton Marsalis, Dave Mathews Cover Band, and more! He's also performed on tour with Michael Wolff, T.S. Monk, and The Afro-Rican

Ensemble. Currently, he can be seen performing with the regional rock/pop cover band Shucking Bubba Deluxe and the smooth jazz group called Aftermath. Keith's music will stir your soul. He's inventive, and provides great entertainment without clich. His grooves will make you shake and move! Enjoy Keith Newton, a fantastic new artist! Want to learn more?
