Skip and Dana worked with a varied and fascinating group of people and animals in the process of creating this music. Award winning author Sy Montgomery (Journey of the Pink Dolphins), telepathic animal communicators Penelope Smith and Eros Christos, Conservationist Roxanne Kremer, an amazingly talented group of musicians including vocalists Donna Delory and Lisbeth Scott, Billy Close and the Earth Harp and the Pink River Dolphins themselves helped create this music. Transmissions received directly from the Pink Dolphins as translated through their communicators were used as guides for creating both lyrics and music. The lyrics of one of the songs Anima Mundi, are comprised entirely of transmissions attributed directly to the dolphins. The LCAC was also lucky enough to obtain one of the only existing clear audio recordings of a vocalization of a wild Pink Amazonian river Dolphin that was incorporating into the music. The voice of the Pink Dolphins is an integral part of the music on this CD.
