Fun and inspirational tunes from the popular syndicated radio program. 10 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Journey into an exciting world where the truths of God's Word are shared by a cast of lovable animal characters and the lessons learned are entertaining and life-changing! Paws Tales radio dramas and song collections help children grasp essential life lessons in a fun and memorable way. Insight for Living launched Paws Tales as a weekly childrens radio drama in September 2001. Every half-hour episode is built upon biblical principles and uses an entertaining and educational format to model Christian values to children aged four to ten. Each episode includes a lesson song that reinforces the lesson. Paws Tales is unique in that it is the only childrens radio series on the air that has an original song composed for each episode. Sandy Howell is Paws Tales' very talented songwriter. Sandys music has been called both inspired and inspiring. Sandy, a native of South Florida and a graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, now resides in Los Angeles where she is in demand as a composer for Disney, Focus on the Family, Fox Entertainment, and many others. She is also a talented session vocalist, and her voice can be heard on many Paws Tales musical selections. Sandy is currently in the pre-production stages of Paws Tales full-length, animated, feature-film adaptation of the story of Queen Esther.
