Sasquatch lives for parody and will cheerfully make light of any philosophical belief or even non-belief. 15 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Comedy, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Reverend Silas T Sasquatch has a slightly different view of the world and he's most interested in the parts that are strange or funny so that doesn't rule out very much. This is his second CD release of compilations of his nightly messages and these ones are somewhat less acerbic than in the first CD. The messages are generally longer as he's having a lot more fun with story-telling on this one. The language has been toned down but the message hasn't. He is still thumping any kind of philosophy with equal enthusiasm. The Reverend Sasquatch style is evolving. Come along with him as it's been an interesting ride so far!
