Highlights of the CD are the haunting Om Namah Shivaya, the Hari Om duet with Swami Satchidananda, and the interplay of the artists voice with the sweet voice of his daughter, Rachel whose lotus tattoo was the inspiration for the album. The work has been described as being full of heart. Many find it addicting I just keep listening to it when I chant along with Lotus Tattoo in the car, I let go of my anger and frustration and feel so much more peaceful. How did a second generation Italian lawyer from Philly find himself recording a call and response Sanskrit Kirtan CD? Born and raised in Wilmington, Delaware, this keyboard/vocalist/composer had his first piano lesson with Sister St. Dorothy at St. Thomas convent and began his singing career at the age of four singing Im a Lonely Little Petunia in an Onion Patch for quarters in Tony Mentos barber shop. Somewhere along the line, he fell in love with rock and roll (the Beatles, Billy Joel, etc.), became the lead singer and keyboard player of rock bands in high school and college, established a career in law and conflict resolution, and raised two spectacular kids with his angelic life partner, Patricia. To keep from going crazy from the stress of a high pressure law practice, he was led to yoga and meditation that changed his life forever. The road to the union of yoga with music began with living room satsangs with Hari Zandler, to beautiful chanting experiences with Gurumayi Chidvilasananda of the Siddha Yoga tradition, to performing and recording with renown chant artist, David Newman (Durga Das). And inspiring, influencing and bestowing grace upon it all is Sams beloved teacher, Swami Satchidananda, of the Integral Yoga lineage.
