These songs from the American Song Book have never been sung better. 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals, POP: with Live-band Production Details: Von Fox is a singer and voice artist by vocation and has a great passion for the performing arts. Born in Salt Lake City, Utah, he worked in regional theater in Salt Lake City in leading roles from Oklahoma to Cabaret. It was there that he learned the art of professional performing from Ariel Baliff and Barbara Danielson. Ariel and Barbara's passion inspired Von. He was soloist at the "Golden Cliff Lodge" at Snowbird ski resort in Snowbird, Utah for 2 years. After moving to New York City, Von studied theater and the performing arts. He then relocated to Los Angeles where he performed with the Long Beach Civic Light Opera starting with "Camelot" at the grand opening of the Terrace Theater on Ocean Blvd. Von continued to study voice in Los Angeles and performed regularly at clubs and other venues. Most recently Von's focus has been in voice over and other voice related work. He has just completed his new album "Alone Together" where he had the privilege of collaborating with many talented musicians. Von is presently living in Las Vegas, Nevada where he continues his work as a singer and voice artist. Von spends much of his free time with his four legged admirers, Penny, Zak and Eve.
