Details: "Your Hand In Mine" consists of two 24-year old students from Thessaloniki (Greece). Manos plays wurlitzer piano, melodica, toy piano, ukulele, accordion and does the programming, while George plays some guitar shaped toy synth, mandolin, zither, glockenspiel and hits random objects in his rhythmic kit. The project came out from members of the postrock band "Shortcat" in late 2006, giving them the opportunity to express their love to acoustic instruments, french folk songs and street musicians. With a constantly growing collection of custom, toy instruments and machines, "Your Hand In Mine" act as live-looping based duet, willing to present a new-romantic, deeply personal sense of chamber music. In the summer of 2007 they composed original music for Mikio Naruse's silent masterpiece "Every Night Dreams" which they presented live at Thessaloniki's International Film Festival in November. Their first handmade release "Your hand in mine" EP, after having defined the band's aesthetic and identity, is awaited to be followed up by "Every Night Dreams" OST official release at the end of May by "inner ear" label.
