Scratching the already scratchy surface of obscure popular music from 1900-1925. Toe-tapping murder ballads and butchershop quartets. Cat burglars and hillbilly vampires do the Charleston. Hoboes start a ruckus in the town bandshell. 17 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: This CD is another foray into the lost America of 1890-1920, particularly the underworld and lower classes. After immersing myself in music from that era, I have written songs about the unfortunate and the unrepentant, the outcast and the inbred. The instruments I use are tenor banjo, guitar, piano, kazoo, musical saw, and a collection of junkyard percussion.
