

Mp3 Dj Dew - Transfusion Of Dance

DOWNLOAD HERE

A full range of dance music breakbeat, trance, house 7 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Breakbeat/Breaks, ELECTRONIC: Dance Details: DJ DEW BIO: I started playing the drums at the age of 8 which lead to percussion instruments. By the age of 12 I was djing Hip Hop at house parties and having dj battles in New York. Several years later I was introduced to House music. I immediately loved everything about it, the sound and feel of it and watching people dance to it is really what inspired me to produce dance music. After spinning for a while in New York I moved to Florida. At that time House music was not as popular as it was in the city so I started producing Bass music which lead to the release of my first album "Bring on the Bass" by the Bolo Bros.. Following that album I released "Wave Nation" and one of the tracks were used on the "DJ Westband" mixed cd and other dance compilations around the world. Some of my others albums are "3rd Odyssey" and "Groove Nation". The song "Together Again" from the "Groove Nation" album was a great single for me, it was all over the radio and mix shows. MTV used several tracks from the "Groove Nation" album for their show "Undressed" in addition to those tracks they have used some of my more recent ones for a total of 13 songs. I have done remixes on Coldplay's "Speed of Sound", Greenday's "Avenue of Broken Dreams", Jessica Simpson's "These Boots Are Made For Walkin", all of those tracks are on Aol radio pop remix. Some of my other credits are "The Matrix 2004", Lord of the Rings", Dance til you Drop", Rain Down On Me", "12,000 BTU", "Burning Up", "Tower in Heaven", and "That u Luv Me". You can find some of these tracks on gremlinradio.com.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: