Marvin has long felt the importance of helping children to develop a sense of their own magnificence and of teaching them responsibility to themselves as well as to all people. He realizes we all are magical beings capable of infinite possibilities of creating our lives exactly as we wish. As such, we all benefit by accepting responsibility for our lives as they are right now and by never blaming anyone else for any unpleasant emotions or circumstances we are experiencing. This eliminates our victim consciousness and empowers us to take our lives into our own hands and consciously create our happiness. These concepts, when taught to children, create self-responsibility, self-esteem, self-confidence, self reliance, self-respect, self-love which bring a happiness we naturally share with everyone around us.
